CASE NO. 2:20-CR-00033-TLN

STIPULATION CONTINUING STATUS
CONFERENCE; STIPULATION REGARDING
EXCLUDABLE TIME PERIODS UNDER SPEEDY
TRIAL ACT; FINDINGS AND ORDER

DATE: July 16, 2020
TIME: 9:30 a.m.
COURT: Hon. Troy L. Nunley

This case is set for a status conference on July 16, 2020. On May 13, 2020, this Court issued General Order 618, which suspends all jury trials in the Eastern District of California “until further notice,” and allows district judges to exercise their discretion to continue all criminal matters on a case-by-case basis. This and previous General Orders were entered to address public health concerns related to COVID-19.

Although the General Orders address the district-wide health concern, the Supreme Court has emphasized that the Speedy Trial Act’s end-of-justice provision “counteract[s] substantive openendedness with procedural strictness,” “demand[ing] on-the-record findings” in a particular case. Zedner v. United States, 547 U.S. 489, 509 (2006). “[W]ithout on-the-record findings, there can be no exclusion under” § 3161(h)(7)(A). Id. at 507. Moreover, any such failure cannot be harmless. Id. at 509; see also United States v. Ramirez-Cortez, 213 F.3d 1149, 1153 (9th Cir. 2000) (explaining that a judge ordering an ends-of-justice continuance must set forth explicit findings on the record “either orally

1 or in writing”).

2 Based on the plain text of the Speedy Trial Act—which Zedner emphasizes as both mandatory
3 and inexcusable—General Orders 611, 612, 617, and 618 require specific supplementation. Ends-of-
4 justice continuances are excludable only if “the judge granted such continuance on the basis of his
5 findings that the ends of justice served by taking such action outweigh the best interest of the public and
6 the defendant in a speedy trial.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A). Moreover, no such period is excludable
7 unless “the court sets forth, in the record of the case, either orally or in writing, its reason or finding that
8 the ends of justice served by the granting of such continuance outweigh the best interests of the public
9 and the defendant in a speedy trial.” Id.

10 The General Orders exclude delay in the “ends of justice.” 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code
11 T4). Although the Speedy Trial Act does not directly address continuances stemming from pandemics, 12 natural disasters, or other emergencies, this Court has discretion to order a continuance in such 13 circumstances. For example, the Ninth Circuit affirmed a two-week ends-of-justice continuance
14 following Mt. St. Helens’ eruption. Furlow v. United States, 644 F.2d 764 (9th Cir. 1981). The court
15 recognized that the eruption made it impossible for the trial to proceed. Id. at 767–68; see also United 16 States v. Correa, 182 F. Supp. 326, 329 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (citing Furlow to exclude time following the 17 September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks and the resultant public emergency). The coronavirus is posing a 18 similar, albeit more enduring, barrier to the prompt proceedings mandated by the statutory rules.
19 In light of the societal context created by the foregoing, this Court should consider the following case-
20 specific facts in finding excludable delay appropriate in this particular case under the ends-of-justice
21 exception, § 3161(h)(7) (Local Code T4).<sup>1</sup> If continued, this Court should designate a new date for the 22 status conference. United States v. Lewis, 611 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2010) (noting any pretrial 23 continuance must be “specifically limited in time”).

24 STIPULATION

25 Plaintiff United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, and defendant, by and 26 through defendant’s counsel of record, hereby stipulate as follows:

27 _____
28 <sup>1</sup> The parties note that General Order 612 acknowledges that a district judge may make “additional findings to support the exclusion” at the judge’s discretion. General Order 612, ¶ 5 (E.D.
Cal. March 18, 2020).

1           1.       By previous order, this matter was set for a status conference on July 16, 2020.

2           2.       By this stipulation, defendant now moves to continue the status conference until
3 September 24, 2020, at 9:30 a.m.. Moreover, defendant separately moves to exclude time between July
4 16, 2020, and September 24, 2020, at 9:30 a.m., under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7) and Local Code T4.

5           3.       Regarding this Local Code T4 motion, the parties agree and stipulate, and request that the 6 Court find the following:

7               a)       The government has represented that the discovery associated with this case
8 includes police reports, documents related to the defendant's criminal history, and other paper
9 discovery. The discovery in this case also includes several video and audio files related to the 10 defendant's arrest, including body camera footage from each of the responding police officers.
11 All of this discovery has been produced to defendant's counsel.

12               b)       Defense counsel desires additional time to review the discovery, conduct 13 additional research into this case, discuss the case with his client, and otherwise prepare the 14 defendant's defense in this matter. Specifically, defense counsel has proffered that he has 15 engaged an investigator to conduct a "deep dive" into the defendant's background, including 16 seeking and obtaining medical reports, reports related to defendant's mental health, and other
17 documents and information necessary to defendant's case. This "deep dive" investigation is still 18 ongoing time, and defense counsel requests additional time to complete that investigation.

19               c)       Counsel for defendant believes that failure to grant the above-requested 20 continuance would deny him the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into 21 account the exercise of due diligence.

22               d)       The government does not object to the continuance.

23               e)       Finally, in addition to the general public-health concerns cited by, among other
24 documents, General Order Nos. 611, 612, 617, and 618, and presented by the evolving COVID-25 19 pandemic, an ends-of-justice delay is particularly apt in this case because counsel and their
26 support staff have been encouraged to telework and minimize personal contact with non-family
27 members to the greatest extent possible, and—consistent with that public-health guidance—it has 28 been difficult for defense counsel and/or his investigator to adequately investigate the factual

1 circumstances underlying defendant's case.

2 f) Based on the above-stated findings, the ends of justice served by continuing the 3 case as requested outweigh the interest of the public and the defendant in a trial within the 4 original date prescribed by the Speedy Trial Act.

5 g) For the purpose of computing time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3161,
6 et seq., within which trial must commence, the time period of July 16, 2020 to September 24,
7 2020, at 9:30 a.m., inclusive, is deemed excludable pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), B(iv)
8 [Local Code T4] because it results from a continuance granted by the Court at defendant's
9 request on the basis of the Court's finding that the ends of justice served by taking such action
10 outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial.

11 4. Nothing in this stipulation and order shall preclude a finding that other provisions of the 12 Speedy Trial Act dictate that additional time periods are excludable from the period within which a trial
13 must commence.

14 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
